

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

IN THE MATTER OF SUPERVISED)	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
PROBATION ON JUSTICE COURT)	NO. 2003-039
CASES)

Whereas, in Administrative Order 2002-118, in response to state budget cuts, the Presiding Judge ordered that "any petition to revoke probation on a misdemeanor defendant where probation is required by law shall be filed in the consolidated probation revocation center in downtown Phoenix," and

Whereas, the Adult Probation Department has asked the Court, for budget savings reasons, to consolidate any matter concerning probation of a misdemeanor defendant to the consolidated probation revocation center downtown, and

Whereas, consolidation will accrue budget savings by decreasing the number of courts these probation matters have to go to from 23 to 1 court downtown,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Once a misdemeanor defendant in the Maricopa County Justice Court has been placed on supervised probation to the Maricopa County Adult Probation Office, the case will be transferred to the Consolidated Probation Revocation center at 101 E. Jefferson, Phoenix, Arizona. A judge or hearing officer in the Consolidated Probation Revocation center will handle any modifications to the terms and conditions of probation, revocations or terminations of probation.
2. The Court Administrator for the Limited Jurisdiction Courts shall work out a protocol for transfer of files- -which may be done by copies- -to the Consolidated Probation Revocation center, and other administrative matters such as continued collections of fines. The implementation of this order will be effective upon the approval of the protocols by the Court Administrator. Outstanding Justice Court warrants for supervised probation matters previously filed will also be transferred to Superior Court.

DATED this 21st day of April, 2003.

Colin F. Campbell
